

Arts & Entertainment

With its nightclubs and megawatt celebrity residencies, Vegas has earned its title as the Entertainment Capital of the World. Aside from the obvious, check out some of the city's other highlights.

TOP ART ADVISER

Tarissa Tiberti (mgmresorts.com) Executive Director of MGM Resorts Art & Culture Tarissa Tiberti oversees more than 800 works of modern and contemporary art across the company's global network of hotels and casinos. When you spot fine art in the lobby of the Aria or in the Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art, you can bet Tiberti was behind it.

BEST PRE-SHOW HANGOUT FOR CELEBS

The Reliquary (The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas, 702.343.7334, spiegelworld.com/opium) Before (and after) the cast of Opium takes the stage at the Cosmopolitan, celebs and VIP invited guests can sip on a Spocktail and hang out at the Reliquary. Hidden by a secret panel behind a mirror, the whimsical room is an easy, breezy spot to socialize and relax without the heavy casino crowds.

BEST WAY TO WATCH A MOVIE

Eclipse Theaters (814 S. Third St., 702.816.4300, eclipsetheaters.com) Everything you want when watching a movie is available at Eclipse Theaters: comfortable reclining seats, cocktails and the kind of cuisine that goes beyond routine candy and popcorn. VIP Prime seats include a call button for on-the-spot service during the film, and the live music in the lounge adds a nice touch. Take date night to posh levels with the private VIP box above the projection booth. No kids allowed for shows after 9PM.

BEST VANTAGE POINT AT T-MOBILE ARENA

Hyde Lounge (T-Mobile Arena, 702.818.3425, t-mobilearena.com) The T-Mobile Arena edition of Hyde Lounge has the best seats in the house if you're not looking to be up close to the action. A private VIP entrance makes it easy to reach the venue without hassle, and you'll spend the night with food and drinks brought to your table.

BEST GOLF BAY TO THE STARS

Topgolf (4627 Koval Lane, 702.933.8458, topgolf.com/us/las-vegas) The Chairman's Suite at Topgolf is a favorite for celebrities and VIPs who prefer style and privacy while swinging golf balls with the Vegas skyline in the background. The two bays are decked out in sleek chrome with a private bar, bathroom, air conditioning and sound system. Gwen Stefani, Drake and Justin Timberlake have all made recent appearances.

BEST NEW HOTEL CONCIERGE LOUNGE

Vdara (Vdara Hotel & Spa, 702.590.2111, vdara.com) The arrival of the Vdara Club Lounge signals a new kind of concierge service with personalized attention, snack bites, business resources, work spaces and a two-hour daily social hour with complimentary wine, beer and hors d'oeuvres. The lounge is included in the price of higher-end suites, but also available to other hotel guests with an additional charge.

BEST GUY-BONDING EXPERIENCE

Battlefield Vegas (2771 Sammy Davis Jr. Drive, 702.566.1000, battlefieldvegas.com) Pay $2,500, drive a tank and crush a car with just 24 hours' notice. Battlefield Vegas takes interactive entertainment to new levels. You and your buds will lose track of all the high-fives exchanged while driving an M1A1 Abrams replica tank over an automobile graveyard.

BEST KINETIC CHANDELIER

Omnia Nightclub Las Vegas (Caesars Palace, 702.785.6200, omniclubs.com/las-vegas) As if the venue's Main Club room's 65-foot ceiling dome wasn't dramatic enough, the grandiose, 22,000-pound chandelier is a show-stopper, often stealing eyes from the club's top headliners. Its eight concentric rings are perfectly choreographed with video projections and lighting effects to elevate the experience to new multisensory levels.

BEST PLACE TO SPOT EXOTIC CARS

Circo Massimo LV (Tivoli Village, 702.608.1411, circomassimolv.com)

On the last Thursday of every month, owners and dealers of high-value exotic cars put their eye-catching vehicles on display in and around the brick-paved valet circle surrounding the fountain at Tivoli Village. Paired with entertainment and art, Circo Massimo LV raises awareness for a different charity each time around. "We started it as Summerlin's version of First Friday," says event founder Tyler Gallo of AN&D Studios. The events draw car collectors, dealers and auto enthusiasts alike for a friendly evening of community fun, food and shopping in an ideal setting.
